COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearby on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are derelict in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favors they put us to great inconvenience.

SUNNY SIDE.

Callie Oney enrolled 40 pupils last week.

We were glad to see that Daysboro letter last week.

W. T. Caskey and wife, of your town, were visiting Uncle Newt Lacy and wife Sunday.

Here is our hand, Charly. Come again every week. We always enjoy your letters.

Mrs. M. J. Oney spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. F. N. Day, of your town, who is quite sick.

Clay Lacy and family, of Gillmore, spent Sunday with their parents, Uncle New Lacy and wife.

We went out to Daysboro Saturday to purchase some little tricks. They have plenty of them up there.

Uncle Rastus Brooks and wife spent Saturday and Sunday with their sister, Aunt Kitty Nickell, of Grassy creek.

Ye scribe went to Hazel Green Sunday, and while there we learned that five of the Hazel Green girls would begin teaching Monday.

Mrs. J. A. Taulbee and children spent Sunday at the Sunny Side home. Come again, Mrs. Taulbee, you know that our latch string hangs on the outside.

We were delighted to see so many letters from the correspondents last week. Hope they will continue to write regularly and most especially would we urge Geo. Taulbee to write. A letter from him is appreciated by all.

Edward Oney left early Sunday morning, preparatory to begin his school Monday. How can we do without them children, and how can we live up to our name when everything is so gloomy? "But the sun must die or shine." Come back my dear brother and see us at your earliest convenience, and we will meet you and greet you in the old familiar way. And when you come bring us a little handful of sunshine from our absent sister to scatter over our home and hearts, for our mother's face as well as our own is quite lengthy. Wish we were a teacher or a preacher, so we could go away and get good, yellow gravy to eat.

Yes, my dear Uncle Remus, you are plenty able to give advice, but do you really think that this was Ruth's last chance for a husband? She was not seeking a courtship or a husband when she went into the field to glean for bread, and she was unconscious of the fact that she would find favor with Boaz; it was on account of her goodness towards her mother-in-law. We can't think that if she had not met Boaz, that as good a woman as she, never could have married, and if we could only be half as good, we would never have to resort to the last chance, but we would have a host of chances to the very last. That man or woman will do to tie to that will take care of a father or mother-in-law in old age. Ruth's example is worthy of imitation; for this part of duty is so often neglected. We always thought well of our uncle, but when the responsibility of an aged father and mother-in-law rested on him, and that he cared for them in sickness and in health, and administered to their wants, our estimation of him went up.

July 17. SUSIE SUNBEAM.

SWANGO SPRINGS SAYINGS.

Miss Lizzie Craft is very sick this week.

John Bise and his sister, Miss Cornia, visited on Lacy creek Sunday.

Mrs. Clinton Byrd, of Salem, passed through here Thursday and gave some of our good people a call.

Lanford Craft left Sunday for Index on Caney, where he will call books and begin his school on Monday.

Misses Fannie and Jose Rose in company with Bruce Rose, all of Stillwater, gave ye scribe a short but pleasant call Saturday.

Mrs. W. H. John and two little daughters, Misses Lisle and Mary, together with Uncle Harry Swango visited at Ezel from Friday until Sunday.

How bright our eyes did grow when they fell upon the pages of the dear old HERALD, which seemed to glow with more letters than its had for ages. There was Campton and Daysboro doings, with bright spangles from Spradling too, and while the gleanings from Gillmore were really amusing, we had the Ezel dots to carry us through.

Now is a very busy season of the year with the people of this section—the best blackberry crop we have had for some two years past is claiming the close attention of our mothers, while the mower and threshing machines are entertaining our fathers with their music; the children have searched the book-cases and attics, and now with school bags and dinner pails are hastening to the school room where the youths of our land are putting forth every effort to improve and instruct the tender young minds. May they realize the great responsibility of their position, and take care that the seeds they sow may yield a rich harvest in the end is the wish of ye scribe.

DAYSBORO DOINGS.

Quite a crowd from Hazel Green attended church here Sunday.

Prof. B. M. Mannin, one of Wolfe county's most deserving ambitious young men, attended the Masonic lodge at this place last Saturday night, and was shaking hands with his many friends, all of whom wish him an abundance of thriving success, and have no doubts but that his record will continue to shine bright as time rolls by.

Thomas Hall, one of Menefee's popular young school teachers, was the guest of D. L. Phelps last week.

Elder Henry Adams, of Hazel Green, filled his appointment at the Christian church here Saturday night and Sunday last, and preached to good crowds at each service.

Uncle Johnny Fortner, one of our most venerable and popular citizens, has been quite sick for several days, but has recovered sufficiently to enable him to get down in town occasionally.

Garfield Mitchell, who was shot in the thigh by the accidental discharge of a shot gun in the hands of a companion a few days since, is improving nicely, and will soon be out again.

The Odd Fellows, of this place, have made some nice improvements in the brick building recently purchased by the lodge, and their room on the second floor will soon be ready for occupancy.

Hon. Amos Davis, of Morgan county, and Hon. Banford White, of Estill county, two strong entries for congressional honors in this district, were mixing with their respective supporters here during the past week.

A box supper, managed by the children of this place to raise funds for Sunday school work, was held in the beautiful court house lawn Saturday evening, and quite a neat little sum raised.

A large crowd of the young people, of this place and vicinity, picnicked at Cold Spring, a delightful resort for the purpose, near town, Saturday, and a goodly number of those in attendance tripped the light fantastic to the enchanting strains of sweet music until the god of day sank to slumber behind the western hills.

Sam Wilson, THE HERALD's poet and Eastern Kentucky's boss painter, has just completed a good job of work in his line on the house of Lit Phelps, and is at present engaged in painting the Christian church building. From what we can learn Mr. Wilson will do considerable work here before Hazel Green will again be illumined by his bright and jovial presence.

The convention at Lexington today will decide who shall be the standard-bearer of the Democratic party in the gubernatorial contest in November, and, for the sake of harmony, it is hoped that James D. Black will be chosen. As THE HERALD has all the time maintained, he of all men in the party, can come nearer harmonizing the factions than any man in the state, and therefore is the only man in our opinion that can win with ease. Mr. Beckham, with the party machinery and his henchmen in the field might be able to pull through, but it is doubtful. Whether Mr. Beckham or Mr. Black receives the nomination, the former should call a special session of the legislature, and repeal the Goebel election law. With that odious measure on the statute book, no democrat can win, and with it wiped off, much of the ammunition the republicans are using would be lost to them in the campaign. THE HERALD fought against the enactment of the law when it was first promulgated because it deemed it unfair, undemocratic and unamerican. But it was enacted, tried and proved an ignominious failure—a regular boomerang to the democratic party. It lost to the party not less than 25,000 votes, and caused the defeat of the ticket. It should be wiped out of existence, and in lieu thereof an absolutely fair election law should be enacted. Let each election board be composed of equal numbers of both the democratic and republican parties, and no man can have cause to complain. Should Mr. Black receive the nomination and Mr. Beckham have the law repealed or amended as to give each party exact representation, the democratic majority in November will easily be 30,000 to 40,000. In the last election several thousand good democrats voted for Brown and for Taylor for no other reason than because of this infamous election law, and were it wiped out they would return to the fold. If Mr. Beckham is today awarded the nomination the best thing he can do to enhance his election is to call the legislature together and have the law annulled. It will add thousands of votes to his columns, and if he does not do it we can hardly hope to win. Whatever the result of the deliberations of the convention today the repeal of the Goebel election law should follow, and our chances of success would be greatly enhanced. It must be repealed or we are without hope.

The ticket nominated at Kansas City on the 4th inst. is the finest combination that was ever presented to the American people, and that it will prove a winner in November is a foregone conclusion. Mr. Bryan is stronger by thousands of votes than he was in the last race he made, and Mr. Stevenson, in himself strong, has strengthened Mr. Bryan. New York state will give Mr. Bryan a handsome majority in the next election whereas it went against him before. Tammany and all the other powers that were against him when he made the race before are now solidly for him, and the leading democrats of that state, some of whom were against him before, have this year pledged him that he shall have the vote of the state. There is every reason to believe that Mr. Stevenson will carry Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky, and the triumphant election of the ticket is thus assured beyond a reasonable doubt. The people are tired of republican rule. Mr. McKinley's policy with Porto Rico and the unholy war he is waging against the Philippines have disgusted all true Americans who love liberty and whose sympathies go out to all who are fighting for liberty. They are tired of militarism and paying a revenue to maintain a standing army for the purposes to which President McKinley has used it, and in November they will rebuke him for his conduct and relegate the republican party. The people are opposed to trusts, and the republican party which fosters them. They are opposed to the centralization of capital and the republican party which encourages it. The republican party has clearly demonstrated that it is for the classes instead of the masses. It encourages plutocracy among the classes and creates paupers among the masses. The people are alive to the situation, and knowing that they have it in their power in November to change the aspect of affairs and place the government in control of people that they know to be their friends—the democratic party—they will do so by a decisive democratic majority. Of the people, by the people and for the people are principles always maintained by the democratic party, and the people realizing this fact will place them in power this fall by a very decided majority.

JAS. B. CECIL, of Morgan county, is a candidate for representative of the counties of Wolfe and Morgan, the 91st legislative district, and submits his claims to the democratic party in convention or otherwise as the party may elect. Mr. Cecil, though a native of Virginia, has been the adopted son of Kentucky for 22 years, and has therefore attained the majority of 21 years on her soil. He has always been a democrat, always supported the nominees of the party, and always lent his time and used his individual means to further the interest of the party and its candidates. But, notwithstanding all this, he has never before asked for an office—not even a school trusteeship—and thinks now it would only be fair to receive the nomination for the office to which he aspires, promising that in event of his election he will do all and everything in his power for the good of the mountains generally, and of the counties he represents in particular. With this introduction we leaves his claims in the hands of his constituents, confident that they will deal fairly with him.

Why send away from home for pianos, organs, sewingmachines, buggies, &c., when we can and will save you money, and goods will be first-class. We sell direct from factories and save you the jobbers profit, which is always big enough. We will repair your sewingmachines, watches, clocks, &c., in first-class style and at reasonable prices. Several of the patrons were in to see the school open, and were pleased to see so much interest being manifested. This is Mrs. Swango's second term at this school, and gave general satisfaction last year. Mrs. Dora obtained in June a first-class certificate.

First come, first served; so march up and pay for THE HERALD a year ahead. We have a clubbing arrangement with that good little paper, the Farm Journal, by which we can send our paper one year and the Farm Journal nearly 5 years (remainder of 1900, and all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904,) without any further pay. J. F. Vansant introduced a substitute to the above resolution, asking for instructions for J. C. W. Beckham, but the substitute was lost in the shuffle.

On motion of J. B. Hollon the convention adjourned sine die.

A. T. COMBS, Chairman.
EDWARD O. TAULBEE, Secretary.

Special Offer in Music for Readers of This Paper.

We are in receipt of a copy of E. T. Paull's latest and greatest march just from the press, entitled "Dawn of the Century March." The title page is a work of art, without doubt the handsomest ever seen on a piece of music, magnificently lithographed in five colors. Mr. Paull is known all over the country by people who use music as being the author of the celebrated "Ben Hur Chariot Race March," which is a universal favorite. Other famous marches composed by him are "America Forever," "A Warmin' Up in Dixie," great characteristic piece, etc. This new march of Mr. Paull's "Dawn of the Century," is said, by competent judges to be one of the best ever placed on the market. Mr. Paull is styled by the leading New York music journals "The New March King." Every piano and organ player should have a copy of this piece. It has six full pages of music. In consideration of our mentioning this new march in our news columns the publishers agree to furnish any of our readers with a complete copy of the piece for 25c in postage stamps or silver, provided this notice and this paper is mentioned, otherwise the regular price 50c will be charged. The publishers also agree to furnish free, to any reader of this paper for a 2c postage stamp a catalogue of their publications containing thirty pages of music. This special offer can only be obtained by mentioning this paper, and writing direct to the publishers, E. T. Paull Music Co., 44 W. 29th St., New York.

John Pieratt, of the Murphy fork, was in Mt. Sterling Monday, and he says it was one of the dullest markets ever seen there. There was 300 to 500 cattle on the market, some of which were left over, and about the same number of sheep, but the demand was light. Hogs were conspicuous by their absence, but horses sold well, one he noted at $150, and mules seemed in fair demand.

Doc Kash and wife, of Maytown, paid our office a pleasant call Thursday last, and the manipulation of the types was quite a mystery to Mrs. Kash.

A Letter From Jim Tom.

BUSHTON, ILL., July 11, 1900.
Dear Brother Cooper: I thought a few lines from here would be read with pleasure by some of THE HERALD readers. My wife came the 3rd and we spent the 4th with Mr. Murphy and wife; had all the cake and ice cream we could eat, and I tell you, it was a good day to eat ice cream. We went to house-keeping at once in Bushton, a little town not quite as large as Hazel Green. We live in a very quiet part of the town. The train runs in two hundred yards of our house. We are very well satisfied; we live in a Kentucky neighborhood; they have all been so nice to us. They have offered us free access to their gardens, which was very acceptable, as we did not come in time to make a garden. They have plenty of fruit here; one man made us a present of a large basket of nice peaches.

They have the finest crops here I ever saw. There are hundreds of acres of broom corn raised in this neighborhood. I think they commence cutting it some time in August. They have had a great deal of rain this summer.

I am getting along nicely with my church work. We have good crowds every Sunday, and we have a splendid Sunday school, about 125 enrolled, but not that many comes regular. Sister Alice Fraizer has the infant class, and she is doing a good work. She has 70 children enrolled, but about 40 in attendance. The children seem to think a great deal of her, and some of them call her mother, and in speaking of them, she will say, my children.

Let me say to the married sisters in our dear little town, take part in Sunday school for there is much you can do. If we will work with a will, I do hope that our school that has done so much for Eastern Kentucky will not be moved from Hazel Green. If the board could only know the anxiety we all have and know the good it has done and will still do, they surely would let it stay.

We are truly sorry to hear of the death of Howard Wilson.

Kindest regards to everybody in and near Hazel Green. I am as ever your friend,

J. T. PIERATT.

Mrs. George Perkins, of Caney, who was taken to Louisville some two months since to have an operation performed upon her for tumor in the side, returned home last week, and stopped at F. M. The physicians at the hospital where she was taken decided that the danger in performing an operation would be too great to insure its success and her recovery, and abandoned the idea. She is said to suffer greatly.

Willie Kash, of Brown's Valley, California, on Tuesday arrived at Ezel, his home prior to his location in California, where he has lived for about six years. He is a brother to Bell and Ova Kash, of Ezel, and will be remembered by the boys and girls who were his former associates. He is here to visit relatives, of whom he has a host besides his brothers, and to recreate for a couple of months or more. He is delighted with California, and thinks his remaining days will be spent there.

The bride has been in the employ of the editor for nearly three years past, as cook and house servant, and is one of the most stylish looking colored females in the country. She has a host of friends, also, among both white and colored people, and all who know the bride and groom congratulate them upon the happy termination of a courtship which has lasted some three years or more.

That prince of good fellows and hustling drummers, Ike Hartfield, representing Guggenheimer & Co., wholesale dry goods and notions, Lynchburg, Va., was a guest of the Day House from Saturday until Monday. Mr. Hartfield has had a card in THE HERALD for more than a year, and he regards the money spent for it as the best investment he has made since he has been on the road. Certain, it is, that he sells more than other salesman not advertising, and he attributes much of his success to the ad in THE HERALD. Hence he renewed his card for another year, and besides made us a present of a very handsome French briar pipe, for both of which acts he has our thanks. Oh, for an hundred Hartfields, and THE HERALD would blossom as a green bay tree.

A mad sow created considerable excitement in the Consolation neighborhood Wednesday. She first appeared at Hazel Green and entered the printing office, but was driven out. Subsequently she got after Mrs. Dora Swango, who took refuge on a fence. Two school boys who were after water, encountered her and escaped her wrath only by beating her off with clubs. She caught a colt by the tail and swung corners with it for some time, and was on the war path generally. Some men in the neighborhood, alarmed at the antics of the animal, started out to kill the brute, but whether they succeeded has not been learned.

"WHITAR" ONLY WHITE TAR SOAP IN THE WORLD.

Whitar Soap is a luxurious and purified toilet soap and superior to the old black tar soaps in every way. It contains all the healing and antiseptic properties of the black tar soaps, with entire freedom from their objectionable features. It soils neither towel nor wash bowl, for its lather is snow-white. It lathers in Hard or soft water far more freely than other tar soaps, and, being 100 per cent. pure, outlasts any of "the filled" soaps of equal size. It contains much more glycerine than other soaps and this together with its soft thick lather make it a king among shampoo soaps. In the treatment of skin, scalp and hair diseases, aggravated cases of dandruff, scald head, falling hair, etc., Whitar is highly recommended. Physicians recommend it for babies' baths, and in cases of chafe or heat rash, the soap is peculiarly efficacious.

STRAY SHOTS.

The celebration of the 2nd anniversary of its re-organization by Troop L, Fifth U. S. cavalry, at Mayaguez, Porto Rico, on June 22, 1900, proved a success beyond the most sanguine expectations. The foyer and grand hall of the opera house had been transformed into a veritable flower garden. The decorations were very graceful, and under palms and beautiful tropical flowers, by the light of many colored globes, the great ball was opened at 8:30 to the music of the Fifth U. S. cavalry band.

The troop was honored by the presence of Colonel and Miss Rafferty, Captain and Mrs. Gurovits, Captain and Mrs. Maginnis, 1st Lieut. and Mrs. Gray, Lieutenants Richards, Cooper, Hall, Halstead, Nadal, Lieut. P. W. Arnold, the present troop commander, and 1st Lieut. S. H. Elliott, the regimental adjutant, the organizer and the father of the troop, accompanied by Mrs. Elliott.

Everyone seemed to have a royal good time, and the refreshments served under direction of the troop's chef de cuisine, Patrick Dunne, assisted as much toward the general enjoyment as the execution of the up to date dance program.

A most pleasant feature of the celebration was the presence at the ball of many of the city officials and their families. Mr. Teillard, the French Consul, and many others kindly presented the troop with flowers and showed the greatest interest in the success of the occasion.

The dancing was kept up till 3 a. m., when after the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" the few remaining hours till reveille were occupied by speech making, First Sergeant Miles K. Taulbee, carrying off the honors. He gave a history of the troop and exhorted the members to always have before them and follow their troop's motto: "In Unity is Strength."

History of Troop "L", 5th Cavalry.

Troop "L", 5th Cavalry, was re-organized at Tampa, Fla., June 21, 1898, under the command of 1st Lieut. S. H. Elliott, 5th cav. On that date twenty-five men were transferred from the older troops of the regiment, and to this nucleus sixty-four recruits were added two days later. The troop was fortunate in securing at the start a particularly efficient set of non-commissioned officers, and under their skillful instruction, the troop took shape with great rapidity. The equipment was received in bulk and not by piecemeal, and in this the troop was more fortunate than some of the older organizations. About July 5th, remount horses were received by the regiment and the troop received its quota. By decision of the regimental commander all the off colored horses were assigned to "L" troop. So the mount was "pinto" in the fullest sense of the word, ranging as it did, from snow-white to coal-black. This was rectified to some extent while the troop was at Huntsville, Alabama, the whites and grays being turned into the Quartermaster's department, and their places filled upon the muster out of the 1st Ohio volunteer cavalry, by boys taken from the mount of that regiment.

Notwithstanding the heat of the Florida summer, and the general sickness of Tampa, the troops worked hard and uncomplainingly, and soon lost its character as a recruit troop. On July 20th it was assigned to the 1st squadron, and was considered fit for any duty. In point of drill it became the peer of any troop in the regiment, and its discipline and attention to duty has always been, from the day of its re-organization, a matter for congratulation to every officer whose lot has been with it.

The troop sailed with the first wing of the regiment on Nov. 9th, 1898, and debarked at Mayaguez, Nov. 17, 1898. It was assigned to station at Los Marias and arrived at that point Nov. 24th, relieving company "M", 1st Kentucky vol. infantry. On May 24, 1899, it changed station to Mayaguez, where it has remained, with the exception of San German tours, ever since.

The troop lost its first commander by his detail as regimental adjutant. Captain Schyler, its commander, is at present Col. 26th U. S. vol. infantry, and his successor, Captain R. B. Bryan, received the appointment of regimental quartermaster. The first sergeant of the troop, Terence Hamill, was recently commissioned a lieutenant in the Porto Rico regiment. Captain W. A. Holbrook, the present captain of the troop is now in the Philippine Islands, a major of the 38th U. S. vol. infantry.

COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearby on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are derelict in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favors they put us to great inconvenience.

SUNNY SIDE.

Callie Oney enrolled 40 pupils last week.

We were glad to see that Daysboro letter last week.

W. T. Caskey and wife, of your town, were visiting Uncle Newt Lacy and wife Sunday.

Here is our hand, Charly. Come again every week. We always enjoy your letters.

Mrs. M. J. Oney spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. F. N. Day, of your town, who is quite sick.

Clay Lacy and family, of Gillmore, spent Sunday with their parents, Uncle New Lacy and wife.

We went out to Daysboro Saturday to purchase some little tricks. They have plenty of them up there.

Uncle Rastus Brooks and wife spent Saturday and Sunday with their sister, Aunt Kitty Nickell, of Grassy creek.

Ye scribe went to Hazel Green Sunday, and while there we learned that five of the Hazel Green girls would begin teaching Monday.

Mrs. J. A. Taulbee and children spent Sunday at the Sunny Side home. Come again, Mrs. Taulbee, you know that our latch string hangs on the outside.

We were delighted to see so many letters from the correspondents last week. Hope they will continue to write regularly and most especially would we urge Geo. Taulbee to write. A letter from him is appreciated by all.

Edward Oney left early Sunday morning, preparatory to begin his school Monday. How can we do without them children, and how can we live up to our name when everything is so gloomy? "But the sun must die or shine." Come back my dear brother and see us at your earliest convenience, and we will meet you and greet you in the old familiar way. And when you come bring us a little handful of sunshine from our absent sister to scatter over our home and hearts, for our mother's face as well as our own is quite lengthy. Wish we were a teacher or a preacher, so we could go away and get good, yellow gravy to eat.

Yes, my dear Uncle Remus, you are plenty able to give advice, but do you really think that this was Ruth's last chance for a husband? She was not seeking a courtship or a husband when she went into the field to glean for bread, and she was unconscious of the fact that she would find favor with Boaz; it was on account of her goodness towards her mother-in-law. We can't think that if she had not met Boaz, that as good a woman as she, never could have married, and if we could only be half as good, we would never have to resort to the last chance, but we would have a host of chances to the very last. That man or woman will do to tie to that will take care of a father or mother-in-law in old age. Ruth's example is worthy of imitation; for this part of duty is so often neglected. We always thought well of our uncle, but when the responsibility of an aged father and mother-in-law rested on him, and that he cared for them in sickness and in health, and administered to their wants, our estimation of him went up.

July 17. SUSIE SUNBEAM.

SWANGO SPRINGS SAYINGS.

Miss Lizzie Craft is very sick this week.

John Bise and his sister, Miss Cornia, visited on Lacy creek Sunday.

Sebron Trimble, of Lacy creek, took dinner with Harrison Swango and wife Wednesday.

Dr. Mason Kash, of Hazel Green, was combining business with pleasure out this way Saturday.

Mrs. Clinton Byrd, of Salem, passed through here Thursday and gave some of our good people a call.

Lanford Craft left Sunday for Index on Caney, where he will call books and begin his school on Monday.

Misses Fannie and Jose Rose in company with Bruce Rose, all of Stillwater, gave ye scribe a short but pleasant call Saturday.

Mrs. W. H. John and two little daughters, Misses Lisle and Mary, together with Uncle Harry Swango visited at Ezel from Friday until Sunday.

How bright our eyes did grow when they fell upon the pages of the dear old HERALD, which seemed to glow with more letters than its had for ages. There was Campton and Daysboro doings, with bright spangles from Spradling too, and while the gleanings from Gillmore were really amusing, we had the Ezel dots to carry us through.

Now is a very busy season of the year with the people of this section—the best blackberry crop we have had for some two years past is claiming the close attention of our mothers, while the mower and threshing machines are entertaining our fathers with their music; the children have searched the book-cases and attics, and now with school bags and dinner pails are hastening to the school room where the youths of our land are putting forth every effort to improve and instruct the tender young minds. May they realize the great responsibility of their position, and take care that the seeds they sow may yield a rich harvest in the end is the wish of ye scribe.

DAYSBORO DOINGS.

Bro. Jim Daniel preached an excellent sermon here Sunday.

Quite a crowd from Hazel Green attended church here Sunday.

Miss Mollie Oney, of Sunny Side, was shopping in our town Saturday.

Miss Lula Taulbee left Sunday for Paxton, Breathitt county, to begin her school at that place.

Miss Beulah Thomas, of Ezel, was a pleasant guest of Montie Fallen Sunday.

Miss Emma Fallin and Laura Wilson gave ye scribe a pleasant call Sunday.

MORCAN COUNTY.

MAYTOWN MISSIVES.

Success to the dear old HERALD. The sick of our town are improving nicely, we are glad to note.

Cesar Hurst, of Campton, was the guest of R. A. Childers last Thursday night.

Schylar Hamilton, wife and little daughter were guests of R. A. Childers and family Sunday.

A. P. Dye, the boss carpenter, has just completed an addition to the house of John Fields, of Ezel.

The public school began here Monday last with Miss Ida Rose, principal; Miss Ora Cecil, assistant.

Mrs. Sarah Wills and pretty little daughter, Ruthie, were guests of John M. Henry and family Saturday and Sunday.

Thomas Hall, one of Menefee's popular young school teachers, was the guest of D. L. Phelps last week.

Uncle Johnny Fortner, one of our most venerable and popular citizens, has been quite sick for several days, but has recovered sufficiently to enable him to get down in town occasionally.

Garfield Mitchell, who was shot in the thigh by the accidental discharge of a shot gun in the hands of a companion a few days since, is improving nicely, and will soon be out again.

The Odd Fellows, of this place, have made some nice improvements in the brick building recently purchased by the lodge, and their room on the second floor will soon be ready for occupancy.

Hon. Amos Davis, of Morgan county, and Hon. Banford White, of Estill county, two strong entries for congressional honors in this district, were mixing with their respective supporters here during the past week.

A box supper, managed by the children of this place to raise funds for Sunday school work, was held in the beautiful court house lawn Saturday evening, and quite a neat little sum raised.

A large crowd of the young people, of this place and vicinity, picnicked at Cold Spring, a delightful resort for the purpose, near town, Saturday, and a goodly number of those in attendance tripped the light fantastic to the enchanting strains of sweet music until the god of day sank to slumber behind the western hills.

Sam Wilson, THE HERALD's poet and Eastern Kentucky's boss painter, has just completed a good job of work in his line on the house of Lit Phelps, and is at present engaged in painting the Christian church building. From what we can learn Mr. Wilson will do considerable work here before Hazel Green will again be illumined by his bright and jovial presence.

The convention at Lexington today will decide who shall be the standard-bearer of the Democratic party in the gubernatorial contest in November, and, for the sake of harmony, it is hoped that James D. Black will be chosen. As THE HERALD has all the time maintained, he of all men in the party, can come nearer harmonizing the factions than any man in the state, and therefore is the only man in our opinion that can win with ease. Mr. Beckham, with the party machinery and his henchmen in the field might be able to pull through, but it is doubtful. Whether Mr. Beckham or Mr. Black receives the nomination, the former should call a special session of the legislature, and repeal the Goebel election law. With that odious measure on the statute book, no democrat can win, and with it wiped off, much of the ammunition the republicans are using would be lost to them in the campaign. THE HERALD fought against the enactment of the law when it was first promulgated because it deemed it unfair, undemocratic and unamerican. But it was enacted, tried and proved an ignominious failure—a regular boomerang to the democratic party. It lost to the party not less than 25,000 votes, and caused the defeat of the ticket. It should be wiped out of existence, and in lieu thereof an absolutely fair election law should be enacted. Let each election board be composed of equal numbers of both the democratic and republican parties, and no man can have cause to complain. Should Mr. Black receive the nomination and Mr. Beckham have the law repealed or amended as to give each party exact representation, the democratic majority in November will easily be 30,000 to 40,000. In the last election several thousand good democrats voted for Brown and for Taylor for no other reason than because of this infamous election law, and were it wiped out they would return to the fold. If Mr. Beckham is today awarded the nomination the best thing he can do to enhance his election is to call the legislature together and have the law annulled. It will add thousands of votes to his columns, and if he does not do it we can hardly hope to win. Whatever the result of the deliberations of the convention today the repeal of the Goebel election law should follow, and our chances of success would be greatly enhanced. It must be repealed or we are without hope.

liberty and whose sympathies go out to all who are fighting for liberty. They are tired of militarism and paying a revenue to maintain a standing army for the purposes to which President McKinley has used it, and in November they will rebuke him for his conduct and relegate the republican party. The people are opposed to trusts, and the republican party which fosters them. They are opposed to the centralization of capital and the republican party which encourages it. The republican party has clearly demonstrated that it is for the classes instead of the masses. It encourages plutocracy among the classes and creates paupers among the masses. The people are alive to the situation, and knowing that they have it in their power in November to change the aspect of affairs and place the government in control of people that they know to be their friends—the democratic party—they will do so by a decisive democratic majority. Of the people, by the people and for the people are principles always maintained by the democratic party, and the people realizing this fact will place them in power this fall by a very decided majority.

JAS. B. CECIL, of Morgan county, is a candidate for representative of the counties of Wolfe and Morgan, the 91st legislative district, and submits his claims to the democratic party in convention or otherwise as the party may elect. Mr. Cecil, though a native of Virginia, has been the adopted son of Kentucky for 22 years, and has therefore attained the majority of 21 years on her soil. He has always been a democrat, always supported the nominees of the party, and always lent his time and used his individual means to further the interest of the party and its candidates. But, notwithstanding all this, he has never before asked for an office—not even a school trusteeship—and thinks now it would only be fair to receive the nomination for the office to which he aspires, promising that in event of his election he will do all and everything in his power for the good of the mountains generally, and of the counties he represents in particular. With this introduction we leaves his claims in the hands of his constituents, confident that they will deal fairly with him.

THE ticket nominated at Kansas City on the 4th inst. is the finest combination that was ever presented to the American people, and that it will prove a winner in November is a foregone conclusion. Mr. Bryan is stronger by thousands of votes than he was in the last race he made, and Mr. Stevenson, in himself strong, has strengthened Mr. Bryan. New York state will give Mr. Bryan a handsome majority in the next election whereas it went against him before. Tammany and all the other powers that were against him when he made the race before are now solidly for him, and the leading democrats of that state, some of whom were against him before, have this year pledged him that he shall have the vote of the state. There is every reason to believe that Mr. Stevenson will carry Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky, and the triumphant election of the ticket is thus assured beyond a reasonable doubt. The people are tired of republican rule. Mr. McKinley's policy with Porto Rico and the unholy war he is waging against the Philippines have disgusted all true Americans who love liberty and whose sympathies go out to all who are fighting for liberty. They are tired of militarism and paying a revenue to maintain a standing army for the purposes to which President McKinley has used it, and in November they will rebuke him for his conduct and relegate the republican party. ## DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The Democrats of Wolfe Meet at Camp-ton and Select Delegates Favorable to James D. Black.

Pursuant to the call of the county chairman, the democrats of Wolfe county met in convention at Camp-ton on the 17th of July, 1900, to select delegates to the Lexington convention to nominate a candidate for governor.

The convention was called to order by Chairman Vansant, and on motion of G. B. Swango, A. T. Combs was elected temporary chairman.

On motion of H. F. Pieratt Edward O. Taulbee was placed in nomination for temporary secretary, and motion carried.

On motion of W. H. Kash the temporary organization was made permanent. Thereupon the chair appointed a committee on credentials, viz: A. F. Byrd, W. H. Kash, J. M. Swango, R. A. Hollon and C. C. Hanks.

A committee composed of G. B. Swango, H. F. Pieratt, J. B. Hollon, Dave Banks and J. F. Vansant was appointed on resolutions.

The committee on credentials reported and they were unanimously adopted.

The committee on resolutions reported the following:

Resolved, 1. That we approve the time and place of holding the state convention.

Resolved, 2. That we approve the course pursued by the state administration.

Resolved, 3. That we approve the action of the Kansas City convention in the selection of William Jennings Bryan for president, and Adlai E. Stevenson for vice-president, as nominees of the democratic party, and that we approve the platform endorsed by that convention and pledge our support to the same.

Resolved, 4. That the delegates hereinafter named are instructed to vote for the man whom they believe to be the strongest for governor, and vote on all questions as they believe will result to the best interests of the democratic party.

Resolved, 5. That A. T. Combs, Edward O. Taulbee, G. B. Swango, W. H. Kash, J. W. Combs, J. B. Hollon, G. W. Sallee, R. L. Carroll, W. L. Bush, J. P. Rose, D. H. Linden, J. A. Taulbee, C. C. Hanks, James N. Rose, David Banks and H. F. Pieratt be appointed delegates to attend the convention at Lexington, and they will vote as a unit on all questions arising in said convention, as a majority may determine.

J. F. Vansant introduced a substitute to the above resolution, asking for instructions for J. C. W. Beckham, but the substitute was lost in the shuffle.

On motion of J. B. Hollon the convention adjourned sine die.

A. T. COMBS, Chairman.

We are in receipt of a copy of E. T. Paull's latest and greatest march just from the press, entitled "Dawn of the Century March." The title page is a work of art, without doubt the handsomest ever seen on a piece of music, magnificently lithographed in five colors. Mr. Paull is known all over the country by people who use music as being the author of the celebrated "Ben Hur Chariot Race March," which is a universal favorite. Other famous marches composed by him are "America Forever," "A Warmin' Up in Dixie," great characteristic piece, etc. This new march of Mr. Paull's "Dawn of the Century," is said, by competent judges to be one of the best ever placed on the market. Mr. Paull is styled by the leading New York music journals "The New March King." Every piano and organ player should have a copy of this piece. It has six full pages of music. In consideration of our mentioning this new march in our news columns the publishers agree to furnish any of our readers with a complete copy of the piece for 25c in postage stamps or silver, provided this notice and this paper is mentioned, otherwise the regular price 50c will be charged. The publishers also agree to furnish free, to any reader of this paper for a 2c postage stamp a catalogue of their publications containing thirty pages of music. This special offer can only be obtained by mentioning this paper, and writing direct to the publishers, E. T. Paull Music Co., 44 W. 29th St., New York.

John Pieratt, of the Murphy fork, was in Mt. Sterling Monday, and he says it was one of the dullest markets ever seen there. There was 300 to 500 cattle on the market, some of which were left over, and about the same number of sheep, but the demand was light. Hogs were conspicuous by their absence, but horses sold well, one he noted at $150, and mules seemed in fair demand.

Doc Kash and wife, of Maytown, paid our office a pleasant call Thursday last, and the manipulation of the types was quite a mystery to Mrs. Kash.

A Letter From Jim Tom.

BUSHTON, ILL., July 11, 1900.
Dear Brother Cooper: I thought a few lines from here would be read with pleasure by some of THE HERALD readers. My wife came the 3rd and we spent the 4th with Mr. Murphy and wife; had all the cake and ice cream we could eat, and I tell you, it was a good day to eat ice cream. We went to house-keeping at once in Bushton, a little town not quite as large as Hazel Green. We live in a very quiet part of the town. The train runs in two hundred yards of our house. We are very well satisfied; we live in a Kentucky neighborhood; they have all been so nice to us. They have offered us free access to their gardens, which was very acceptable, as we did not come in time to make a garden. They have plenty of fruit here; one man made us a present of a large basket of nice peaches.

They have the finest crops here I ever saw. There are hundreds of acres of broom corn raised in this neighborhood. I think they commence cutting it some time in August. They have had a great deal of rain this summer.

I am getting along nicely with my church work. We have good crowds every Sunday, and we have a splendid Sunday school, about 125 enrolled, but not that many comes regular. Sister Alice Fraizer has the infant class, and she is doing a good work. She has 70 children enrolled, but about 40 in attendance. The children seem to think a great deal of her, and some of them call her mother, and in speaking of them, she will say, my children.

Let me say to the married sisters in our dear little town, take part in Sunday school for there is much you can do. If we will work with a will, I do hope that our school that has done so much for Eastern Kentucky will not be moved from Hazel Green. If the board could only know the anxiety we all have and know the good it has done and will still do, they surely would let it stay.

We are truly sorry to hear of the death of Howard Wilson.

Kindest regards to everybody in and near Hazel Green. I am as ever your friend,

J. T. PIERATT.

Mrs. George Perkins, of Caney, who was taken to Louisville some two months since to have an operation performed upon her for tumor in the side, returned home last week, and stopped at F. M. Long's, en route. The physicians at the hospital where she was taken decided that the danger in performing an operation would be too great to insure its success and her recovery, and abandoned the idea. She is said to suffer greatly.

Willie Kash, of Brown's Valley, California, on Tuesday arrived at Ezel, his home prior to his location in California, where he has lived for about six years. He is a brother to Bell and Ova Kash, of Ezel, and will be remembered by the boys and girls who were his former associates. He is here to visit relatives, of whom he has a host besides his brothers, and to recreate for a couple of months or more. He is delighted with California, and thinks his remaining days will be spent there.

The groom is the well known horse trainer and driver who has been in the employ of J. T. Day for the past several years, and who is regarded as one of the most honorable colored men of the county, and who has a host of friends in both white and colored circles. The bride has been in the employ of the editor for nearly three years past, as cook and house servant, and is one of the most stylish looking colored females in the country. She has a host of friends, also, among both white and colored people, and all who know the bride and groom congratulate them upon the happy termination of a courtship which has lasted some three years or more.

That prince of good fellows and hustling drummers, Ike Hartfield, representing Guggenheimer & Co., wholesale dry goods and notions, Lynchburg, Va., was a guest of the Day House from Saturday until Monday. Mr. Hartfield has had a card in THE HERALD for more than a year, and he regards the money spent for it as the best investment he has made since he has been on the road. Certain, it is, that he sells more than other salesmen not advertising, and he attributes much of his success to the ad in THE HERALD. Hence he renewed his card for another year, and besides made us a present of a very handsome French briar pipe, for both of which acts he has our thanks. Oh, for an hundred Hartfields, and THE HERALD would blossom as a green bay tree.

A mad sow created considerable excitement in the Consolation neighborhood Wednesday. She first appeared at Hazel Green and entered the printing office, but was driven out. Subsequently she got after Mrs. Dora Swango, who took refuge on a fence. Two school boys who were after water, encountered her and escaped her wrath only by beating her off with clubs. She caught a colt by the tail and swung corners with it for some time, and was on the war path generally. Some men in the neighborhood, alarmed at the antics of the animal, started out to kill the brute, but whether they succeeded has not been learned.

"WHITAR" ONLY WHITE TAR SOAP IN THE WORLD.

Whitar Soap is a luxurious and purified toilet soap and superior to the old black tar soaps in every way. It contains all the healing and antiseptic properties of the black tar soaps, with entire freedom from their objectionable features. It soils neither towel nor wash bowl, for its lather is snow-white. It lathers in Hard or soft water far more freely than other tar soaps, and, being 100 per cent. pure, outlasts any of "the filled" soaps of equal size. It contains much more glycerine than other soaps and this together with its soft thick lather make it a king among shampoo soaps. In the treatment of skin, scalp and hair diseases, aggravated cases of dandruff, scald head, falling hair, etc., Whitar is highly recommended. Physicians recommend it for babies' baths, and in cases of chafe or heat rash, the soap is peculiarly efficacious.

STRAY SHOTS.

The celebration of the 2nd anniversary of its re-organization by Troop L, Fifth U. S. cavalry, at Mayaguez, Porto Rico, on June 22, 1900, proved a success beyond the most sanguine expectations. The foyer and grand hall of the opera house had been transformed into a veritable flower garden. The decorations were very graceful, and under palms and beautiful tropical flowers, by the light of many colored globes, the great ball was opened at 8:30 to the music of the Fifth U. S. cavalry band.

The troop was honored by the presence of Colonel and Miss Rafferty, Captain and Mrs. Gurovits, Captain and Mrs. Maginnis, 1st Lieut. and Mrs. Gray, Lieutenants Richards, Cooper, Hall, Halstead, Nadal, Lieut. P. W. Arnold, the present troop commander, and 1st Lieut. S. H. Elliott, the regimental adjutant, the organizer and the father of the troop, accompanied by Mrs. Elliott.

Everyone seemed to have a royal good time, and the refreshments served under direction of the troop's chef de cuisine, Patrick Dunne, assisted as much toward the general enjoyment as the execution of the up to date dance program.

A most pleasant feature of the celebration was the presence at the ball of many of the city officials and their families. Mr. Teillard, the French Consul, and many others kindly presented the troop with flowers and showed the greatest interest in the success of the occasion.

The dancing was kept up till 3 a. m., when after the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" the few remaining hours till reveille were occupied by speech making, First Sergeant Miles K. Taulbee, carrying off the honors. He gave a history of the troop and exhorted the members to always have before them and follow their troop's motto: "In Unity is Strength."

History of Troop "L", 5th Cavalry.

Troop "L", 5th Cavalry, was re-organized at Tampa, Fla., June 21, 1898, under the command of 1st Lieut. S. H. Elliott, 5th cav. On that date twenty-five men were transferred from the older troops of the regiment, and to this nucleus sixty-four recruits were added two days later. The troop was fortunate in securing at the start a particularly efficient set of non-commissioned officers, and under their skillful instruction, the troop took shape with great rapidity. The equipment was received in bulk and not by piecemeal, and in this the troop was more fortunate than some of the older organizations. About July 5th, remount horses were received by the regiment and the troop received its quota. By decision of the regimental commander all the off colored horses were assigned to "L" troop. So the mount was "pinto" in the fullest sense of the word, ranging as it did, from snow-white to coal-black. This was rectified to some extent while the troop was at Huntsville, Alabama, the whites and grays being turned into the Quartermaster's department, and their places filled upon the muster out of the 1st Ohio volunteer cavalry, by boys taken from the mount of that regiment.

Notwithstanding the heat of the Florida summer, and the general sickness of Tampa, the troops worked hard and uncomplainingly, and soon lost its character as a recruit troop. On July 20th it was assigned to the 1st squadron, and was considered fit for any duty. In point of drill it became the peer of any troop in the regiment, and its discipline and attention to duty has always been, from the day of its re-organization, a matter for congratulation to every officer whose lot has been with it.

The troop sailed with the first wing of the regiment on Nov. 9th, 1898, and debarked at Mayaguez, Nov. 17, 1898. It was assigned to station at Los Marias and arrived at that point Nov. 24th, relieving company "M", 1st Kentucky vol. infantry. On May 24, 1899, it changed station to Mayaguez, where it has remained, with the exception of San German tours, ever since.

The troop lost its first commander by his detail as regimental adjutant. Captain Schyler, its commander, is at present Col. 26th U. S. vol. infantry, and his successor, Captain R. B. Bryan, received the appointment of regimental quartermaster. The first sergeant of the troop, Terence Hamill, was recently commissioned a lieutenant in the Porto Rico regiment. Captain W. A. Holbrook, the present captain of the troop is now in the Philippine Islands, a major of the 38th U. S. vol. infantry.
